4. organisation of joint scientific conferences
5. exchange of staff (administration, library, services...).

article 2

Both universities support any other kind of cooperation that has not been included in the article 1. of the present agreement. In case of such activities, a case-by-case decision should be made on behalf of both parties, which will be determined in separate annex appended to this Contract. Each party will designate a contact person who will be responsible for the development of specific activities or programmes.

article 3

In every annex concerning exchange programmes, the following topics will be arranged with mutual consent:

1. Duration of the exchange
2. Exact aim of the exchange and tasks of the exchanged person
3. Amount of time for research to be spent at the host institution
4. Financial aspects of the exchange

article 4

Each student included in the exchange program will pay his or her regular tuition and fees to the home institution, which will enable him/her to realize all the rights deriving from his/her status at the host-University.

Additional fees for special programs, any incidental fees, travel, housing, and meal costs will be the responsibility of the exchange student.

The host institution agrees to arrange accommodation in the student dormitory, according to the disposability of the free rooms in the dormitory, or assist in finding appropriate off-campus accommodations.

article 5

It is understood that visiting students and staff members will be responsible to obtain all necessary insurance coverage.

The host institution cannot be held responsible for any damages suffered or caused by the visiting student or staff member.

Exchange personnel must abide by the laws of the host country and the rules and regulations of the host institution.

The host institution will provide all necessary documents for visa purposes. Students will be responsible for obtaining visas once they are in possession of these documents.

It is expected that only highly motivated students of above-average academic quality will be selected to participate in an exchange program.

Each party to the agreement will appoint an officer who will be responsible for the coordination and administration of the exchange including the counseling of the exchange participants on demand. The name(s) of the coordinator(s) and the period of the responsibility are mutually announced simultaneously with the exchange of the signed agreement.

article 8

The parties agree that, as a rule, faculty members of the partner institution shall be invited for short-term teaching assignment. Assignments by semester or academic year are possible, however.

The utilisation of the results of research undertaken through the collaboration of personnel from the two Universities can be used, with prior consent from the both parties.
