The UNESCO Chair on Global Problems and Emerging Social and Ethical Challenges for Large Cities and their Populations at the Faculty of Global Studies of the Lomonosov Moscow State University, Moscow, Russian Federation (hereinafter referred to as "the Chair") represented by its Chairholder Prof. Dr. Yury Sayamov acting on the basis of the Agreement between the Lomonosov Moscow State University and UNESCO from September 28, 2010 and the Order by the Rector of the University from March 22, 2011 № 606-K and the University of Urbino (hereinafter referred to as the "University") represented by H.E. the Rector of the University, Prof. Vilberto Stocchi

(hereinafter referred to as “the Parties”)

Sharing aims and goals of UNESCO, as well as the principles of its UNITWIN program on twinning and networking university education;

Striving for the creation along the UNESCO recommendations of a network on global problems and emerging challenges in various fields, especially those of social and ethical nature affecting different strata of the population all over the world, in particular, in large cities;

Considering that the development of education and research in the framework of the UNITWIN program facilitating the international exchange of knowledge and experience constitutes an important factor for the upgrading of the level and the quality of the world education and for the involvement of people in educational processes;

Convinced that joint work of university teachers, researchers, post graduates, students can largely contribute to build up advanced scientific and educational communities around UNESCO Chairs and their Sections;

Bearing in mind the noble mission of UNESCO as set forth in its Constitution and the unique role it is playing to promote on the world scale education, science, culture and communications in the service of mankind;

Taking into account that UNESCO supports and recommends the creation of thematic networks on the basis of existing UNESCO Chairs by establishing Chair Sections on various aspects of problems the Chair is dealing with,

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1 The Parties shall establish a Network Section of the Chair (hereinafter referred to as “the Network Chair”) on studies of :

International Aid in Foreign Affairs and Global processes

located at the University of Urbino.

Article 2 The purpose of the Network Chair shall be to promote an integrated international networking system of research, training, exchange of knowledge, experience, information and documentation in the fields related to studies and research of global problems and emerging social and ethical challenges, especially, as related to the International Aid in Foreign Affairs and Global processes, serving as a means of facilitating the scientific and educational collaboration between universities and other higher educational and scientific research establishments, students, post graduates, teachers and scientists on the global scale.

The specific objectives of this Network Chair are:

1. to include the scientific and educational potential of the Urbino University and of other interested establishments in Italy and their partners elsewhere wishing to participate in the first and for the time being the only in the world UNESCO Chairs Network on studies and research of global problems and emerging social and ethical challenges;
2. in line with UNESCO priorities to facilitate the creation and development of the data banks and monitoring projects related to sustainable development, to social and

- ethical processes and transformations in large cities, countries and regions, to the situation of youth, gender equality, information technologies and global climate changes;
3. to conduct research and establish guidelines and educational materials on social, socio-demographic, socio-economic, socio-cultural and ethic challenges coming up with the process of globalization, especially problems of the sustainable development and problems of gender equality, in particular in cities;
  4. to train experts and prepare aggregated expert evaluations on development prospects in the fields related to global problems and emerging social and ethical challenges, especially in large cities in order to elaborate and provide recommendations to governmental bodies and social organizations with the view to help improve the situation and overcome the negative consequences of social processes ;
  5. to provide interdisciplinary education programs based on prospective global studies and forecast for processes affecting social development and ethics of the society.
  6. to set national, regional and international instruments in order to disseminate and exchange the results of research in the fields related to global problems and emerging social and ethical challenges, such as web portal, distant education, information and communication facilities, intellectual and expert associations, conferences and publications.

Article 3 The Parties agree to give operational life to the Chair within one year from the signature of this agreement, by adopting a three years Action Plan of the Chair and formal appointment of a Head of the UNESCO Network Chair.
The ceremony of formal signature of the Action Plan and appointment of the Head of the Network Chair will take place at the University of Urbino.

Article 4 The Parties shall consider the Network Chair as a part of a UNESCO network on global problems and emerging social and ethical challenges.

Article 5 The Network Chair shall submit an annual report on its activities to the Chair before May 1st of each year in order to be included in the annual Chair's report to be presented to UNESCO before May 30 of each year.

Article 6 The Chair shall take necessary steps to facilitate the participation of its the Network Chair in its programs, actions and activities with the view to strengthening international academic cooperation.

Article 7 The Chair shall associate the Network Chair with the activities of UNESCO chairs and networks in other regions and countries, in particular through the North-South-South cooperation.

Article 8 Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the organization hosting the Network Chair shall assume the responsibility for providing or helping it acquire necessary means for its successful functioning.

Article 9 In order to identify its link with the Chair and its participation in the UNESCO network on global problems on the basis of the Chair, the Network Chair may use the logo of the Chair and the linked UNESCO/UNITWIN logo that includes the UNESCO official logo and the UNITWIN logo to the right of the former, under the following conditions as stipulated by UNESCO:

- the logo and the conditions for the use of the logo are determined by UNESCO and cannot be modified without its permission;
- the logo must not be used in any manner that may mislead public, notably concerning the respective status of the Chair and its network sections;
- as specified under the provisions of Article 10 of this Agreement, the logo shall not, under any circumstances, be used for any commercial purposes;
- all information materials published by the Section, bearing the logo, should be under the disclaimer that views contained and opinions expressed therein are not necessarily those of UNESCO and do not commit the Organization;
- the Section will assume full responsibility for each possible legal consequence for this use.

Article 10 Neither the Network Chair nor any member of its staff shall be considered as officially representing UNESCO or being its staff member, nor shall they enjoy any benefit, immunity, remuneration or reimbursement of UNESCO. They shall not be authorized to act or to make statements on behalf of UNESCO, nor commit UNESCO or the Chair to any expense of any nature or to any other obligation.

Article 11 The Network Chair shall be entirely responsible for taking any measures it deems necessary to insure itself against loss, injury or damage incurred during the implementation of its activities.

Article 12 The present Agreement shall enter into force for a period of 4 (four) years on the date of both signatures having been appended. It may be cancelled by either party subject to 60 (sixty) days' written notice to the other party.

Article 13 The prolongation of the present Agreement shall be effected for the next period of 4 (four) years automatically, unless otherwise decided by the Parties and stipulated by the exchange of letters between them.

Article 14 In the event of a dispute, the Parties shall make a good faith effort to settle it amicably. Otherwise, the norms of International Law, UNESCO principles and mutually agreed arbitrary services shall be applied.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF,

the undersigned, duly authorized to that effect, have signed 2 (two) copies of the present Agreement in the English language, the two copies being equally authoritative.
